

All One Ocean Advisory Board Director 2018 Job Description

Reports to: Director

Hours per week: 10 hours per month

Location: work from home

Description of the organization:

All One Ocean's mission is to educate our communities about litter entering our waterways and how it affects our health and our environment. We believe the solution to degradation of our waterways starts with education, and we provide crucial education through our two primary programs: Ocean Warriors (OW), our elementary school environmental leadership program, and our Beach Cleanup program. Bay Area based All One Ocean, a Project of Earth Island Institute, was founded by Hallie Iglehart in 2010 after encountering a seagull entangled in fishing line on her daily beach walk. Iglehart untangled the bird, but knew her work wasn't finished and she developed a simple yet powerful tool – Beach Clean Up Stations, which have been used to remove over 1.1 million pieces of trash since their inception. Since 2011, All One Ocean has installed over 54 Beach Clean Up Stations in California, Baja, Hawaii, Iowa and Alabama. Complementing this work we focus our education primarily around Ocean Warriors, our third-grade environmental leadership program and monthly beach clean ups. Ocean Warriors is focused on our youth. This yearlong, Project-Based Learning program is a sustainable approach to changing behaviors at the source and creating a new generation of environmental leaders, making beneficial daily choices for our environment. Tying in our Ocean Warriors and Beach Clean Up Station programming, we organize education based beach clean ups to entire communities focused on community building, team work and gaining a deeper understanding of how pollution effects our global eco-systems.

Summary: All One Ocean is part of Earth Island Institute. Earth Island Institute Board of Directors provides the official governance and support functions for All One Ocean. However, because Earth Island has more than 60 projects, All One Ocean has an Advisory Board. The Advisory Board does not have any legal responsibilities. Rather the Advisory Board gives advice and support. The Advisory Board of All One Ocean assists staff in raising funds, volunteers and/or recruits volunteers, serves as a sounding board for the director, and lends name and personal credibility to the organization.

Responsibilities:

1. Be morally responsible for the health, well-being and direction of All One Ocean. I pledge to carry out All One Ocean's mission of educating the community about the destructive impacts of litter which enters our waterways and Ocean by providing simple yet powerful ways that everyone can reduce litter while also creating stewards for our environment.
2. Be responsible, along with other board members, for the prudent operation of All One Ocean. I will know and approve the policies and programs, and oversee the implementation and evaluation of policies and programs.
3. Be financially responsible, along with other board members, for reviewing the budget and ensuring funding to implement the budget.

Description:

1. Attend at least 1 of the bi-annual Advisory Board meetings, committee meetings and/or special events.
2. The Advisory Board meetings will be held February and August.
3. The Director of All One Ocean will circulate an agenda, and supporting documents at least five days prior to the scheduled Advisory Board meeting.
4. Advisory Board members agree to review and be prepared to discuss and decide upon the information circulated by the Director.
5. If I cannot attend, I agree to schedule a meeting with the Director to review topics.
6. Participate in at least one All One Ocean educational event each calendar year. Including but not limited to: a presentation to a school or service club, tabling for All One Ocean at an event.

Educating our Communities, Protecting our Ocean

7. To always act for the good of the organization and its members.
8. To represent this organization in a positive and supportive manner at all time and in all places.
9. Advisory Board Members agreed to "give or get" $600 per year for All One Ocean. This can be a "give" one time or monthly personal contribution from the Advisory Board member. Or this can be a "get" soliciting through soliciting donations individually, providing contacts and address to the organization to send solicitation letters, planning a house party or small event, grants, or matching donations.
10. Recommend people for Advisory Board, Clean Up Station stewards, volunteers or presenters.
11. Connect the organization with potential major donors (able to donate $250 an up), through in person contact.

Compensation: unpaid but the experience is priceless!
