All One Ocean Programs

Ocean Warriors

Beach Cleanup Stations

Beach Cleanups
Ocean Warriors

- Fun and engaging program for K-8 students
- Provides environmental education about the dangers of ocean pollution and teaches each student how they can make a difference
- Offers opportunities for high school interns seeking environmental experience
  - Interns work in schools to develop curricula and teach Ocean Warriors

Currently in its 6th year

2,495 students educated to date

15 interns engaged to date
Beach Cleanup Stations

- Well-established network of Beach Cleanup Stations (BCUS)
  - Supported by 25 volunteers and stewards
- Educational BCUS signage educates passersby about the harmful effects of litter
- Most trash removed from Bay Area beaches includes face masks, gun shell casings, IV needles, plastic bottles/cups, and micro-plastics
Beach Cleanups

- Cleanup events for schools, businesses, team-buildings, and private groups
- Coupled with group-appropriate fun, ecological lessons, and suggestions for easy/sustainable ways to make a difference
- Participants see for themselves the impact they make while having fun

Customized for each group

75-400 lbs. of trash removed by each cleanup

Repeat attendees attest to program success
How We Make a Difference

- Create opportunities for all communities to have a greater connection to our ocean
- Provide an engaging and empowering educational approach to environmental preservation
- Engage underserved and underrepresented communities
- Deliver much-needed environmental education to K-8 youth
- Nurture the next generation of environmental leaders
- Offer sustainable solutions to modify consumer behavior and ultimately impact policy change

Why Sponsor AOO?

All One Ocean was founded in 2010 and has a deep history of stewardship and education through our mission of ocean conservation and education. Our organization reaches thousands of students, families, community participants and business’ across the Bay Area each year. We rely on financial contributions from individuals, foundations and corporate sponsors like you to ensure we meet our mission, grow, and have impact around the Bay Area and beyond.

By sponsoring All One Ocean, you will showcase your commitment to ocean conservation and partnership to providing environmental literacy for children K-12.
